

Barbados junction box manufacturer

AI Overview

Several companies in Barbados manufacture or supply junction boxes and electrical enclosures, including Williams Electrical, Brilltech Engineers, and Sheet Metal Factory. Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

Williams Electrical – Operating since 1972, Williams Electrical provides design, installation, and supply of electrical systems, including junction boxes and other enclosures. They have extensive experience in commercial, industrial, and residential projects across Barbados and the Caribbean, employing a skilled team of engineers and technicians capable of handling complex electrical installations (Williams Industries Inc.).

Brilltech Engineers Pvt. Ltd. – This company offers a wide range of electrical products, including junction boxes, electrical panels, LT distribution panels, and transformers. They focus on high-quality manufacturing and custom solutions to meet specific client requirements, with an in-house facility for precision design and production.

Sheet Metal Factory – With over 22 years of experience, this company specializes in electrical enclosure cabinets, electrical boxes, and custom designs. They provide one-stop solutions for electrical enclosure processing and customization, catering to both standard and specialized requirements.

Do It Best Barbados – While primarily a retail supplier, they stock junction boxes and related electrical components suitable for smaller projects or DIY installations.

Kooyman Barbados – Offers a range of electrical boxes and installation products, serving as a supplier for various electrical needs in Barbados.

Considerations When selecting a manufacturer or supplier, consider:

- Customization needs: Some companies like Sheet Metal Factory and Brilltech Engineers offer tailored solutions.
- Project scale: Williams Electrical is suitable for large commercial or industrial projects.
- Availability and support: Retailers like Do It Best provide immediate stock for smaller-scale requirements.

These companies collectively cover a broad spectrum of junction box and electrical enclosure needs in Barbados, from cu...
