

Cost of Ladder Cable Trays in Honduras

AI Overview

Ladder cable trays in Honduras typically range from $20 to $80 per 2.4-meter section, depending on material, size, and coating.

Price Overview

The cost of ladder cable trays varies based on material, size, and protective coating:

- Hot-dip galvanized steel trays: Commonly used for industrial and outdoor applications, prices generally range from $20 to $50 per 2.4-meter section depending on width and load capacity.
- Stainless steel trays: Offer superior corrosion resistance and durability, suitable for harsh environments, with prices typically $50 to $80 per 2.4-meter section.
- Aluminum trays: Lightweight and corrosion-resistant, often priced $30 to $60 per section.
- FRP (Fiberglass Reinforced Polyester) trays: Ideal for corrosive environments and electrical insulation, prices are generally comparable to mid-range steel trays, around $25 to $60 per section.

Supplier Options in Honduras

Several local and international suppliers provide ladder cable trays in Honduras:

- Brilltech Engineers: Offers customizable ladder cable trays with durable steel construction, corrosion-resistant coatings, and easy installation options.
- Local manufacturers: Provide trays in various sizes and materials, including PVC, steel, and FRP, with options for future expansion and modifications.
- Trade platforms: FRP and other specialized trays can be sourced through platforms like TradeKey, offering bulk purchase options.

Additional Considerations

- Fittings and accessories: Elbows, tees, and supports are priced separately, usually $5–$15 per piece depending on size and material.
- Installation costs: Labor and mounting hardware may add 10–20% to the total project cost.
- Customization: Custom widths, coatings, or pre-drilled holes may increase the price slightly.

For accurate pricing, it is recommended to contact local suppliers directly to request a quote based on your project specifications, material preference, and quantity requirements.
