

Qatar High Voltage Busbar Manufacturers

AI Overview

Qatar hosts several reputable manufacturers and suppliers of high voltage busbars, including POWER BUSBARS (Q-BARS), ESC, and S.R. Coppertech, offering solutions for industrial and commercial power distribution. Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

1. POWER BUSBARS (Q-BARS) Located in South Doha, Q-BARS specializes in high-quality busbar systems for industrial and commercial applications. They provide tailored solutions for power distribution and are recognized for their expertise in high voltage busbar manufacturing.
2. ESC (Elinek Busbar Systems) ESC offers a wide range of busbar systems, including medium voltage (MV) busbars rated at 12 kV and 24 kV, and compact busbar systems for high power distribution from 400A to 6300A. Their MV CR series uses aluminum or copper conductors embedded in DURACOMP insulation, ensuring safe and efficient power transmission in industrial environments.
3. S.R. Coppertech Private Limited S.R. Coppertech manufactures high-quality copper busbars, rods, flats, and earthing strips. Their copper busbars are designed for optimal conductivity and durability, making them suitable for high voltage applications. The company has extensive experience in supplying electrical power distribution components across various industries.
4. Other Notable Suppliers Additional suppliers in Doha include Max. Binghalib Engineering, Al-Jaber Electro-Mechanical Co., Promag, Electra, and Arabian Controls & Switchgear (ACS), which provide busbar systems as part of broader electrical distribution and MEP services. These companies often offer turnkey solutions, including installation and integration of busbar systems for commercial and industrial projects.

Considerations for Selection

- Voltage Rating: Ensure the busbar system supports the required high voltage levels (e.g., 12 kV, 24 kV).
- Material: Copper busbars offer higher conductivity, while aluminum busbars are lighter and cost-effective.
- System Type: Choose between compact, modular, or medium voltage busbar systems depending on space and load requirements.
