

South African steel cable tray company

AI Overview

Top South African steel cable tray brands include Advanced Strut, CMG, Brilltech Engineers, and The Cable Manager, offering durable solutions for industrial and commercial applications. Leading Brands and Suppliers Advanced Strut specializes in high-quality metal cable trays and ladders suitable for industrial and commercial installations. They offer pre-galvanized, hot-dip galvanized, and stainless steel (304 and 316) options, catering to environments with varying corrosion resistance requirements. Their range includes perforated trays, wire mesh trays, and cable ladders for efficient cable and pipe management. CMG (Cable Management Group) is renowned for its perforated cable trays and ladder systems, designed for light, medium, and heavy-duty installations. They provide cold-formed metal framing and combination channels, along with complementary cable management products such as conduits, fittings, cable glands, and electrical fixings. Brilltech Engineers supplies a variety of cable trays in South Africa, including galvanized steel, stainless steel, and fiberglass options. Their trays are designed to protect cables from physical damage, dust, and environmental hazards while promoting airflow to prevent overheating. The Cable Manager offers a comprehensive range of cable trays, ladders, and related accessories. They serve electrical contractors, construction companies, and industrial facilities across major South African cities, including Johannesburg, Pretoria, Durban, Cape Town, and Port Elizabeth.

Key Considerations

Material: Choose between galvanized steel for general use, hot-dip galvanized for heavy-duty or corrosive environments, and stainless steel for highly corrosive conditions.

Tray Type: Options include perforated trays for airflow, wire mesh trays for flexibility, and ladder trays for heavy cable loads.

Compliance: Ensure the supplier adheres to industry standards for safety and durability.

Support and Service: Many suppliers, like CMG and Brilltech, provide design support, installation guidance, and project consultation. These brand...
