

Unit cost of optical cable pole lines

Overview

Installing or “overlashing” aerial fiber optic cable typically costs $8 to $12 per linear foot. When considering the cost per mile, this translates to approximately $40,000 to $60,000 per mile. Conduit systems add $2-4 per foot but allow future cable additions. Handholes and. The cost per foot of aerial deployment is less than half of underground, at a cost from $4 to $9 per foot, as compared to $11 to $24 per foot for underground deployment with the median cost of deploying fiber underground over twice that of deploying fiber aerially. In preparing this second edition of the Fiber Deployment Cost report, Cartesian gathered inputs from a wide variety of firms building. The Fiber Broadband Association partnered with Cartesian to research the cost of fiber deployment and provide insight on how costs are evolving over time.
