

Where can I find cable tray suppliers in North Africa

AI Overview

North Africa has several reputable cable tray suppliers, including El Sewedy Electric and Alfa Cables in Egypt, offering a wide range of industrial and commercial cable management solutions.

Key Suppliers in North Africa

El Sewedy Electric (Egypt): A leading manufacturer of cable trays, electrical enclosures, and accessories, serving energy, infrastructure, and telecommunications sectors across Africa and the Middle East. They provide ladder, perforated, and wire mesh cable trays compliant with international standards (IEC, ISO) and suitable for industrial and commercial applications.

Alfa Cables (Egypt): Offers a broad range of cable trays, electrical components, and accessories for industrial and infrastructure projects. They focus on high-quality materials and provide solutions for both domestic and export markets.

BICC Cables (Nigeria): While primarily based in Nigeria, BICC Cables supplies cable trays and related products across Africa, including North African projects, with a focus on industrial and telecommunications applications.

Other Notable Suppliers Serving Africa

CMG (Cable Management Group, South Africa): Designs and distributes cable trays, ladders, channels, and complementary products for industrial and commercial markets. They provide technical support and customized solutions for large-scale projects.

Jeetmull Jaichandlall (Africa-wide): Offers a variety of cable trays, including perforated, ladder, and stainless steel options, with in-house manufacturing and customization capabilities.

Sartra (UK-based exporter): Supplies galvanised steel cable trays and conduits to Africa, including North Africa, with fast delivery and a wide range of industrial and commercial solutions.

Considerations When Choosing a Supplier

Compliance and Certification: Ensure suppliers meet international standards such as IEC, ISO 9001, CE, or local standards like NIS in Egypt and SANS in South Af...
